

Gaming Store System

Maryam Al-Rahbi 24-0235
Ibtihal Al-Musallami 24-0272
Abrar Al-Fahadi 24-0275
Meerah Al Badi 24-0590
Mona Al Balushi 24-0580

Purpose

This system is created to help stores manage game products, accounts, orders and purchase/payment, as well as managing inventory.

Features

It is designed to be easy to track, update and search products, as well as managing profiles customer and admin control panel, place orders and the process of purchase, and finally tracking items in stock.

List of main classes:

User

Admin

Customer

Store

Product

InventoryItem

Inventory

Payment

OrderItem

Order

CashPayment

CardPayment

CLASS OVERVIEW AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1- User

Represents central entity, contain common attributes shared between all users

2- Admin

Add products, Update product, and view Inventory.

3- Customer

Shows customer information, with personal details,contact.

4- Product

represents sold items and their information.

5- Order/Purchase

represent transaction (product bought, who bought? , and quantity)

6- Payment

Handles payment information (amount, methods of pay)

7-Inventory

Track stock of an item, get updated after every purchase.

8- Store

Manages the whole gaming store system and connects all classes together.

9- inventoryItem

Stores a product with its available stock quantity.

10- CardPayment

Processes payments made using a bank card.

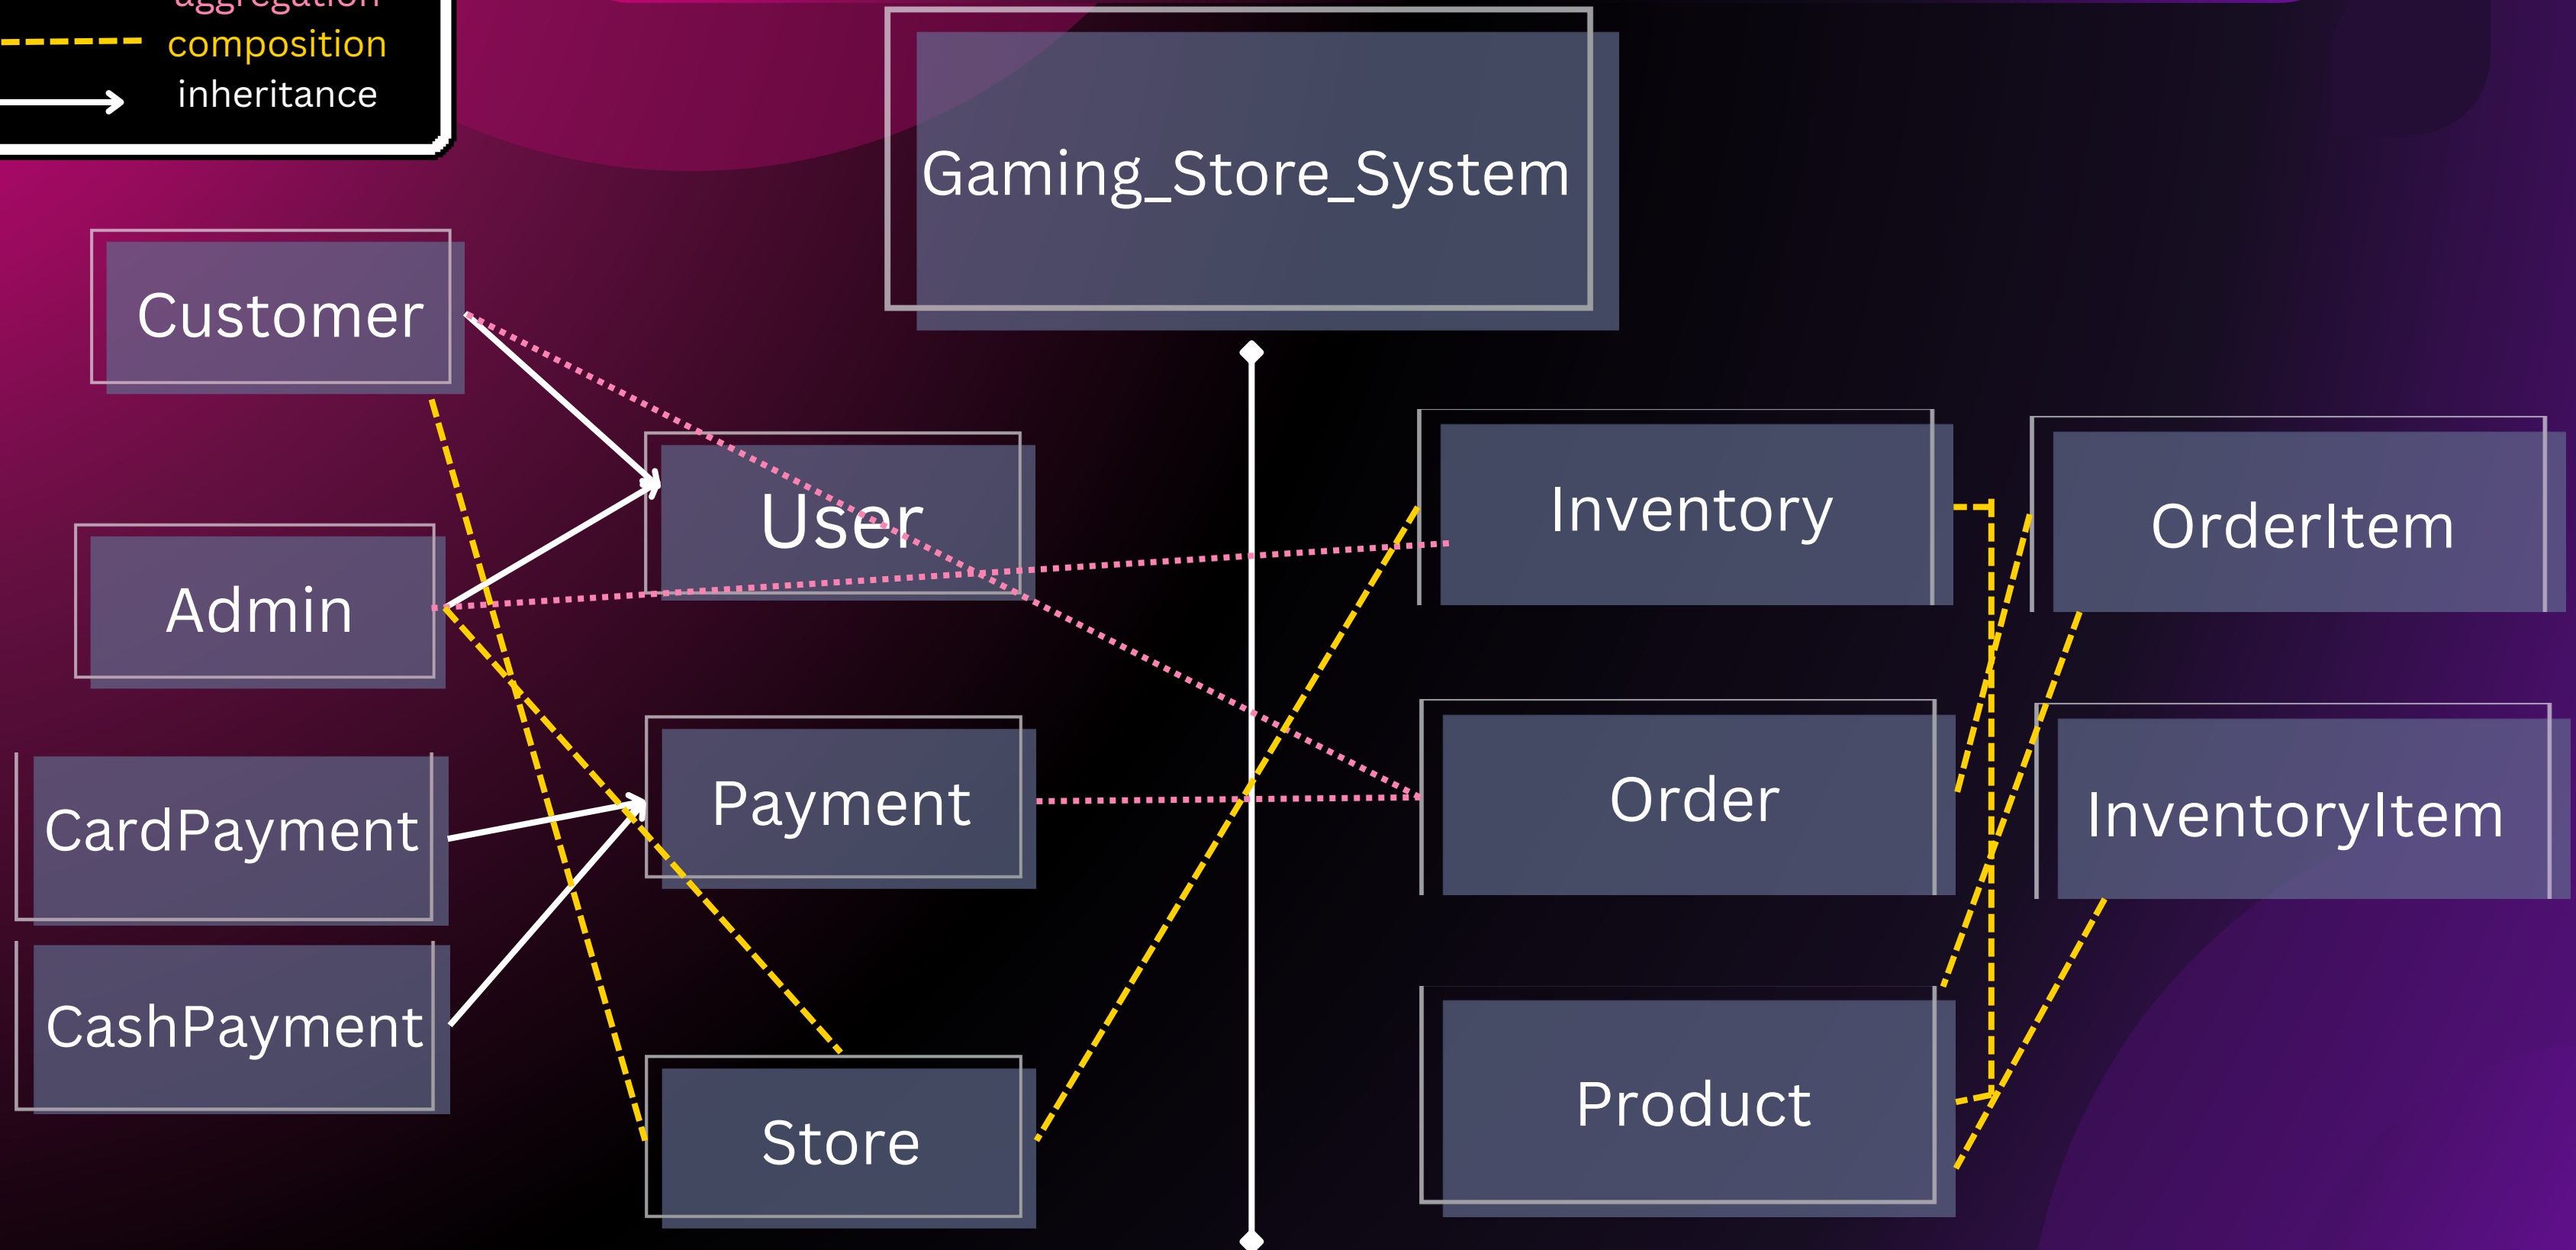

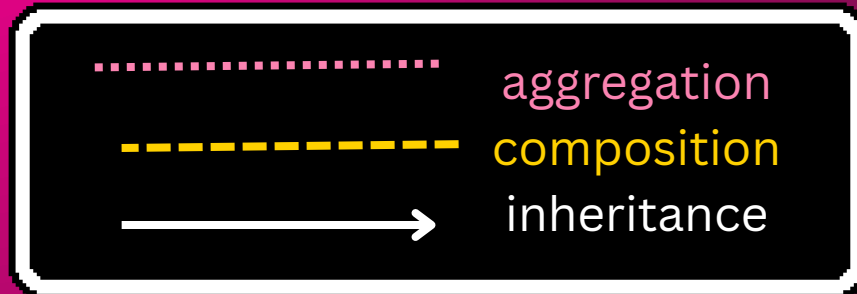

11- CashPayment

Processes payments made using cash.

12- OrderItem

Represents a product and its quantity inside an order.

Relationship between classes

Work Distribution

Member	Contribution
Meerah Al Badi 24-0590	Implemented Product, Store, InventoryItem, OrderItem, and Main classes
Mona Al Balushi 24-0580	Implemented User, Admin, and Customer classes
Maryam Al-Rahbi 24-0235	Implemented Payment, CashPayment, and CardPayment classes
Ibtihal Al-Musallami 24-0272	Implemented the Inventory class
Abrar Al-Fahadi 24-0275	Implemented the Order class